

Download Archives In Movement International Seminar On Archive Documentaries

In November 2016, the CPDOC Audiovisual and Documentary Center organized the International Seminar on Archive Documentaries - Archives in Movement.² This meeting encouraged debate and reflection about the distinct pre-existing modes of incorporation of images in the field of audiovisual production with a documentary nature. Archives are the documentary by-product of human activity retained for their long-term value. They are contemporary records created by individuals and organisations as they go about their business and therefore provide a direct window on past events. Archives and Human Rights Seminar November 8, 2017 An International Seminar on Human Rights Archives: Agents of Accountability and Justice was held in Gwangju City, Republic of Korea, in September 2017. The Universal Declaration on Archives was initiated by the International Council on Archives and adopted in Paris by the UNESCO on the 10th of November 2011. The International Council on Archives invites all archivists, records managers and the general public, to celebrate this anniversary. - Archives In Movement International Seminar On Archive Documentaries
