| Discrimination on grounds of sexual orientation and gender identity in Europe There is considerable resistance among many people to discuss the full enjoyment of universal human rights by LGBT persons. On the basis, in particular of adopted texts by the Council of Europe Parliamentary assembly, the CDDH prepared Recommendation CM/Rec(2010)5 on measures to combat discrimination on grounds of sexual orientation or gender identity. It was adopted by the Committee of Ministers on 31 st March 2010. The activity was conducted from 2009 to 2013. Many people in Europe are stigmatised because of their sexual orientation or gender identity and cannot fully enjoy their universal human rights. Discrimination on grounds of sexual orientation or gender identity is not compatible with Council of Europe standards.
