Sunset Cannon Cam: Every night, rain or shine, Schooners fires off the old cannon at sunset to celebrate another beautiful day on the beach and ring in the night with a whole different kind of fun. The following are notable schooner-rigged vessels. Description. La Amistad was a 19th-century two-masted schooner of about 120 feet (37 m). By 1839 the schooner was owned by a Spaniard captain, Don Ramon Ferrer. Strictly speaking, La Amistad was not a slave ship as it was not designed to transport large cargoes of slaves, nor did it engage in the Middle Passage of Africans to the Americas. 12/8/17 New 59' Steel Power Cruiser New 12/12/17 sailplans schooner & cutter Mary Read .
