

Download What's Wrong With University

We know that the vast majority of students go into higher education to get a qualification. But there are other reasons as well that have nothing to do with learning. The university system has its problems. Students invest a lot of time and money in education but all too often don't get what they came for. In What's Wrong With University, Jeff Rybak addresses the most pressing concerns for undergraduate students, and helps them cope with the university system. Overview. The university system has its problems. Students invest a lot of time and money in education but all too often don't get what they came for. What's wrong with university rankings Paper presented to the Australasian Association for Institutional Research 2005 forum, Melbourne, 24 November Gavin Moodie, Griffith University This paper considers flaws and limitations of 3 university ranks important to Australian ... - What's Wrong With University