In cultural anthropology, the distinction between a guilt society (or guilt culture), shame society (also shame culture or honor-shame culture), and a fear society (or culture of fear) has been used to categorize different cultures. Spiritual warfare is the Christian concept of fighting against the work of preternatural evil forces. It is based on the biblical belief in evil spirits, or demons, that are said to intervene in human affairs in various ways. Various Christian groups have adopted practices to repel such forces, as based on their doctrine of Christian demonology.

INTRODUCTION. People in the world have a variety of life styles, customs, thoughts, philosophies, cultures, and beliefs. These are derived from the specific concepts of the individual or from group behavior or ideology.
