Do not believe the nonsense others tell you. This is how California divorce laws really work. This is what our divorce laws really say. Our amazing guide explains it all. The California divorce process starts with a summons and petition. A petition for dissolution of marriage is similar to a lawsuit. Instead of filing a lawsuit by a plaintiff against a defendant, a spouse files a petition (and is the petitioner) and asks for a divorce against the other spouse, who is named as a respondent.
