The Five Invitations: Discovering What Death Can Teach Us About Living Fully [Frank Ostaseski, Rachel Naomi Remen M.D.] on Amazon.com. FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Death is not waiting for us at the end of a long road. Death is always with us, in the marrow of every passing moment. She is the secret teacher hiding in plain sight Da'Shanae Mathews, 19, is a single parent mom of newborn D'Akari and is planning to go to college. When she thinks of "Loving Brown Babies," Da'Shanae thinks of a lot of powerful African American mothers loving their babies and knowing that even though being a new mom may seem scary, everything will be OK. I appreciated having a course dealing with the Christian Approach to Death and Dying. In the current environment of political correctness, many health care providers are afraid to approach it from this direction. - Loving, Dying, Living: Faces Of America
