Cardiology : Welcome to theheart.org | Medscape Cardiology, where you can peruse the latest medical news, commentary from clinician experts, major conference coverage, full-text journal articles ...June 2017 Update: "Based on general comments I have received over the years I would like to explicitly state the point of this article up front: Don't let anyone tell you that you can just keep going through the motions, ticking boxes and that you will eventually get into medicine by trying for long enough (or for having enough passion) - There is a high chance that things will not work out ...Lysine Prevents Growth of Cancer. Dr. Matthias Rath advocates increased consumption of the amino acid lysine (4 ounces daily for a 150 pound cancer patient) as a companion nutrient with vitamin C. Lysine has the effect of blocking the enzymes that dissolve collagen, resulting in encapsulation of the tumor. Read Dr. Rath's book Cellular Health Series: Cancer for free on the Internet. Germany Active Ten Thousand Legs Too Many – Amputated Heidelberg – "Year by year, about 20,000 legs are being amputated in the German Federal Republic because of pathological arterial occlusion. This terrifyingly large number may be at least cut in half by the implementation of all available modern means." - Medicine Is The Best Laughter, A Second Dose
