Volume 13, No. 1, Art. 30 – January 2012 . Participatory Research Methods: A Methodological Approach in Motion. Jarg Bergold & Stefan Thomas. Abstract: This article serves as an introduction to the FQS special issue "Participatory Qualitative Research." In recent years there has been a resurgence of interest in participatory research strategies. This publication was developed by the Center for the Improvement of Early Reading Achievement (CIERA) and was funded by the National Institute for Literacy (NIFL) through the Educational Research and Research-based reading instruction allows children opportunities to both understand the building blocks and expand their use of language, oral and written. These opportunities are illustrated by classroom activities in these twelve components of reading instruction for grades one through three. Introducing the paper and the research. This paper is a brief progress report on the conceptualisation and implementation of a long-term personal project to investigate the nature and purposes of writing for publication in educational action research, so it is located within the field of critical academic literacies (see Lankshear and Knobel 2011). - Research Successful Approaches 3rd Ed
